Address: 26 S.W. Main Street, Douglas, MA (big rig access). Please provide ETA in advance.
Postal mailing address for you can be arranged with resident Carolyn Pinter, or TBD

- * DCM camping sites are available to accommodate any size RV/trailer.
- * Calm pets may be allowed by permission, but owners must appropriately clean up after them.
- * There are no meals served, nor on-site laundry facilities.
- * When helping around camp, scheduling & tasks are to please be coordinated with DCM Leader regularly (typical work weeks include a minimum of 24-28 hours for head of household and 50% of that for others).
- * Typically, no overnight guests. Daytime guests to be approved/registered at: DCMA1875@gmail.com
- * Gates are to be kept closed and we ask you to keep your eyes out for the security of our facilities.
- * When Retreat Rentals are underway, we all avoid interfering with their event (and sometimes re-locate).
- * Our time at DCM is to daily include some degree of the Word, Worship & Prayer and loving our neighbors.

On Wednesday evenings @6pm we all join together for Prayer & Share. (seasonal)

Staying at Douglas Camp Meeting? Here is some helpful info:

- The purpose for those who stay at Douglas Camp Meeting grounds is for spiritual growth and outreach as well as to care for the properties/ministry.
- Parents must make sure their children are supervised and safe at all times.
- Calm pet(s) may be allowed by permission.
- Worldly activities, music, media, behavior, apparel are not permitted on DCM grounds – including smoking, alcohol/drugs, profanity. Unrelated couples are not permitted to reside together at DCM. Sabbath is honored as a gift from God.
- Individuals who use any authorized bathroom facilities are responsible for custodial care of their usage. Please notify us if supplies are short or repairs needed.
- Those who stay at DCM are responsible to remove their own rubbish from the camp. Also, snow plowing is not provided.
- Use of DCM kitchen is not permitted unless a rental agreement is entered into and a copy of their cook's ServSafe certificate is submitted to DCMA.
- Application/contract and Pastoral recommendation are required for any that stay at DCM (unanimous approval of the DCMA Executive Board required), other than during Annual Camp-meeting, as mature Christian character is essential.
- Our Founders stated, "... these grounds are to be held forever for holiness". Not only do we treat DCMA grounds as sacred, but consideration of others seeking-first Christ is appreciated.

“Worshiping God in the splendor of His holiness”

During annual Camp Meeting (beginning the 3rd Friday of each July) everyone on the grounds gathers at the Dining Hall at 10am for our daily Campground Huddle & Bible Studies for all ages and at the Tabernacle every Evening (7pm weekdays, 6pm weekends), as well as Sunday Mornings.

There are unique opportunities to prepare for and serve throughout July Camp Meeting.
