DCMA Grounds Purpose & Usage

The purpose for those who stay at Douglas Camp Meeting grounds is for spiritual growth and outreach as well as to care for the properties/ministry.

Parents must make sure their children are supervised and safe at all times. Calm pet(s) maybe allowed by permission.

Worldly activities, music, media, behavior, apparel are not permitted on DCMA grounds – including smoking, alcohol/drugs, profanity. Unrelated couples are not permitted to reside together at DCM. Sabbath is honored as a gift from God.

Individuals who use any authorized bathroom facilities are responsible for custodial care of their usage. Please notify us if supplies are short or repairs needed. Those who stay at DCM are responsible to remove their own rubbish from the camp. Also, snow plowing is not provided.

Use of DCM kitchen is not permitted unless a rental agreement is entered into and a copy of their cook’s ServSafe certificate is submitted to DCMA.

Application/contract and Pastoral recommendation are required for any that stay at DCM, other than during Annual Camp-meeting, as mature Christian character is essential.

Our Founders stated, “... these grounds are to be held forever for holiness”.

Not only do we treat DCMA grounds as sacred, but consideration of others seeking-first Christ is appreciated.
